

SUPERINTENDENT'S STATEMENT

- Your statement and evaluation are crucial to the judging process and can impact the final decision. To maintain anonymity, after stating the applicant's name, refer to them as "the applicant," "the individual," or "the candidate" instead of using their name. This ensures an objective and fair review.
- Your evaluation is crucial to the judging process and can directly influence the final decision. Please ensure a thoughtful, detailed, and objective assessment, as judges rely on this feedback.
