Stand Up and Play Foundation to Attend GCSAA Conference and Trade Show in San Diego
San Diego, CA – The Stand Up and Play Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing accessible and adaptive recreational opportunities for individuals with mobility impairments, is excited to announce its attendance at the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America (GCSAA) Conference and Trade Show.

Taking place from February 5-6 at the San Diego Convention Center, the GCSAA Conference and Trade Show is one of the largest and most comprehensive events in the golf industry. The Stand Up and Play Foundation will be exhibiting at Booth #1654, showcasing its innovative adaptive golf equipment, including the ParaGolfer and VertaCat.

"We are thrilled to attend the GCSAA Conference and Trade Show and connect with golf professionals, industry leaders, and individuals who share our passion for making golf more accessible and inclusive," said Anthony Netto, Founder of the Stand Up and Play Foundation.

"Our mission is to empower individuals with mobility impairments to participate in recreational activities, and we believe that golf has the power to transform lives."

During the conference, the Stand Up and Play Foundation will offer demonstrations, product showcases, and educational sessions highlighting the benefits of adaptive golf and recreational activities for individuals with mobility impairments.
